30th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A

Congratulations to the Children from our parish who were Confirmed this week. May the gifts of the Holy Spirit continue to grow in their lives.

Reflection:

The way we know that we are living Jesus' commandment of total dedication to God, who is unseen, is to make that love visible by loving our neighbour as self. Jesus' life shows us whom he considered his neighbour. Besides his disciples and friends, neighbour for Jesus included the least likely, the overlooked, the vulnerable and the people who are usually described in stereotypes.

So we ask ourselves:

- Is God at my centre, the inspiration and impetus behind my thoughts, feelings and actions?
- Who is the surprising neighbor Jesus is calling me to love?
- And how shall I share Jesus' love with that person(s)?

Next week's readings are at the back of each church.
