33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time
 Year A

Why We Do The Things We Do
 Responsorial Psalm

‘The collection of 150 Hebrew Psalms ... allows us to express human feelings, longings and reactions that link us to fellow pilgrims down through the centuries.’ The assembly have opportunity to respond to our active reception to the 1st Reading. In the Mass the Psalms are shared by the Reader, offering the verse with the assembly responding with the refrain. In the Liturgy of the Hours, the Psalms are sung antiphonally, by an exchange led by different sides of the congregation, or the whole Psalm sung in unison. The Psalms ‘can help us speak to God, sing His praise, and respond to His love.’
