2nd Sunday of Easter
Divine Mercy Sunday

Reflection:

Many of us can claim kinship to doubting Thomas. We commonly say, "I'll believe it when I see it." Jesus counters that attitude when he utters the beatitude, "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." That's us!
We don't see and then believe...instead, we believe and then see Christ alive in our prayer and our daily lives.

So we ask ourselves:

- What is it in our personal or surrounding world that causes us to doubt our faith in the risen Christ?
- What or who has strengthened our faith in those times?
- What sign of the risen Christ am I to others?

Baptism

We welcome Lucia McDermott, daughter of Fintan and Bridgid into our parish community. Lucia was baptised this weekend. May God continue to bless the McDermott family.

Message from Father

My sincere thanks to all the dedicated helpers who assisted in making our Easter celebrations come together in such a wonderful and meaningful way. Thank you to the Liturgy Committee, Musicians, Choir, Sacristans and parents from the schools. A personal thanks to parishioners for their well wishes and generosity with their Easter offerings.

Please bring in your Project Compassion donations

Thank you to all the parishioners who generously donated to Ukraine – we raised $1750.
