15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflection:

The Samaritan would have known from his own experience what it felt like to be "beaten up" and left behind. His was a member of a despised group, an outsider to the religious and national thinking of the Jew. Which may have stirred him to respond to the victim by the side of the road. He knew what it was like to be victimized.

So we ask ourselves:

- Can we remember an experience of being left out, treated as an outsider?
- Does that experience make us more aware and sensitive to the plight of outsiders these days? Who are these outsiders?
